The concession assessment conducted on the Equipment suggests that it will not adversely impact the Airwave Network when used in accordance with issue instruction v4.x and has been configured in accordance with the specifications).

Observation/Comments:

1. This concession has been issued following request by BiTEA to review the product sheet and manual to grant concession without testing. As such the product details were reviewed and this suggested that when used in accordance with the instruction and configuration recommended by supplier, it is considered that it will not adversely impact the Airwave Network.
2. Airwave would recommend the product is concession tested if used against the Sepura 10.5 or higher software or used with another manufacturer's TETRA terminal due to changes in the interfaces.
